The subscriber declares to not use the certification in any manner that discredits the certification body (S-Cert). Further, no statements concerning the certification may be taken which can be considered as misleading or not authorized by the certification authority. In case of a certification suspension or withdrawal, the certification and certification logo can no longer be used, and any certificates issued by S-Cert are to be returned. Improper use of certificates is to refrain from. A misuse of the certification or certification logos in publications, catalogs, etc. may result in the withdrawal of the certification.

The subscriber confirms that he/she will inform the certification body immediately, if he/she for any reasons no longer meets the certification standards.

This certificate remains in possession of S-Cert AG and can be demanded to be returned in any case of misuse.
